

The Lyons Den

LEONARD LYONS

In Tahiti now is the man whose press-agent stunt may affect the U. S. Presidency: He's Bill Safier, of All-State Properties. At the Fair in Moscow last year he persuaded Nixon to visit All-State's exhibit where TV cameras were set up: That's the kitchen where Nixon argued with Khrushchev . . .